THE IR SHIP.

LONG DR. ED OF--NOW A COM-REALITY.

The First Air Vessel will Arrive in Chicago in Sixty Days--A $2,000,- Syndicate Formed.

(By United Press.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Times this morning says that a project for the establishment of an air ship company was announced yesterday, and to-day at the Mount Carmel Aeronautical Manufacturing Company will be incorporated with a capital of $2,000,000.
In sixty days the first air ship is to be in Chicago. The company is to be organized by a powerful English syndicate of eastern capitalists. The proposed ship which the company is to build, and models of which have been successfully tested, will carry the size of the railroads and will seat fifty persons.
Special cars are being manufactured for quick mail and passenger ser-

IRON INSPECTION TOUR.

Members of the Iron and Steel Institute Congress on an Exploring Tour--Big Receptions and Overtures to the Way.

(By United Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—A long special train of parlor coaches flashed over the Pennsylvania road from New York this morning, and after swaying at the rate of half a hundred miles an hour, drew up with a rumble and rumble at Tacony. The train over seven hundred people who were in their persons practically all known regarding the science of iron in England, Germany and The passengers were the delegates to the International Congress of the Iron and Steel Institute, whose final session was held in New York, and whose visit to this city completes the first stage in their journey of inspection through the manufacturing and ore lands of Pennsylvania and the West.

The train stopped at Tacony to give the members of the party an opportunity to view the great Dison saw works, which they were shown immediately after the members of the committee.

After an hour spent in the Dison saw works where the members were occasionally critical, frequently inquiring, and generally appreciative, the party embarked on the commodious steamer Columbia for a trip on the Delaware river to view of the harbor.

On Monday, by invitation of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Co., an excursion train will leave the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station at 10 a.
m. for Philadelphia.

Mr. Cleveland Going West.

(By United Press.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—The Herald says this morning: P. E. Eustis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent of the Burlington road, received information yesterday that Ex-President Cleveland will come west. His arrival will follow closely upon that of President Harrison, Senator Reed and other Republican leaders.

Yesterday the management of the coal place at Ottumwa, notified P. E.
Eustis, General Passenger and Ticket Agent of the Burlington and Quincy road, that Grover Cleveland would be there on October 10th, the day following President Harrison's appearance.
They wanted equal facilities as to rates and special trains for the Democrats as for the Republicans. An attempt is to be made by the Democratic leaders to have Cleveland make a few speeches on their reform while he is in the west.

An Imperial Invitation Declined.

(By Cable to STATE CHRONICLE.)

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Count Von Moltke has asked the Emperor to excuse him from accepting the latter's invitation to visit him at Berlin on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the Count's birth day, which occurs on the 26th of October. The weight of advancing years make it injudicious for the Field Marshal to incur the fatigue incidental to the journey and the general physical exertion involved in acceptance of the Imperial invitation.

Harnessing up Niagara.

(By United Press.)

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 4.—The company of turning the first sod in the work of constructing the great tunnel, which the people of this place fondly hope will change Niagara Falls from a mere summer resort into a great manufacturing centre, was performed this morning.

The remarkable success with which many of my Agents have met and are gladly; that he may make a grand success for the Union Central Life Insurance Company, one of the old understandable solid companies—there being only three companies confining their operations to the United States doing as much business. Address me giving residence of Raleigh, N. C.

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE.

Nearly 200 Students--Tasosse Club Organized--Dr. John A. Broadus Elected to Deliver The Next Baccalaureate Sermon--The Department of Physical Culture, &c.

[Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.]

WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, October 4, 1890.—Only ten more and we will have two hundred students! This is certainly a good showing and we venture to say that no college in the State can equal it.

Dr. Taylor gave an informal lecture to the students this week, his subject being "New York City." He has been traveling in the interest of the college. The lecture was very enjoyable; the points were brought out plainly and claimed the attention of every one present. The boys are very anxious for Dr. Taylor to continue the lecture at some early date.

The Wake Forest Student, Vol. 10, is in preparation and will be out sometime soon. It is safe to say that, under its efficient corps of editors this year, it will continue to hold its high position among the college magazines of the land.

A "la crosse" club has been organized here and the first game will be played to-day. This is the first club, to our knowledge, ever organized by any college in the State. Some efforts are being made to give an exhibition game at the fair between two teams from here, but the arrangements have not yet been perfected.

The senior class yesterday elected Dr.
Jno. A. Broadus, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, to deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Wednesday night of next commencement. It is not yet known, but greatly hoped, that he will accept.

The gymnasium has been opened for the students and regular hours for exercise allotted to each one. The department of physical culture is regarded as of much importance in the college course of the study of any branch of learning, tending as it does, to promote the physical condition of a student, and thereby enable him to work better and longer on his intellectual studies. The director of Physical Culture is arranging for the establishment of a Field Day here, and the first will be held some time next spring. All the students will be allowed to compete. The exercises will consist of such feats as are generally performed on similar occasions at every college, along with some games of la crosse and a tennis tournament. The boys are "catching on" to the idea right along, and when the boys "get on" to things, they are pretty sure to succeed.

Professor C. E. Brewer, who held the position of Alumni Editor of the Student last session, has resigned, and Professor Geo. W. Greene has been elected to fill the vacancy.

MR. GLENN LAST LIGHT.

He Preaches Strong Democratic Doctrine To The People.

At the Stronach warehouse last night R. B. Green E. q., preached good Democratic doctrine. He was introduced by Hon. John C. Scarborough.

He spoke with his accustomed ease and force and began with a wise and earnest protest against the apathy which prevailed. He showed that the Radicals could organize within 48 hours and urged Democrats to effect a thorough organization in every township and ward. He showed that this was the most important election that had been held in ten years. He showed that Radical success meant a Radical U. S.
Senator and a redistricting of the congressional and senatorial districts which would be ruinous.
Reading from the Greensboro North State in the campaign of 1888, Mr.
Glenn showed that every promise made by the Republicans had been broken.
They promised: 1. To secure better prices for farmers' products; 2. To pass the Blair Bill; 3. To repeal the internal revenue law; and to give a free ballot and a fair count. Mr. Glenn in an unanswerable way showed how false the Radicals had been to the people in every promise they had made. His discussion of the Tariff, the Force bill, the Internal Revenue and other questions was clear and strong.

Mr. Glenn closed with an earnest appeal to the Democrats of Wake to kick out Upchurch and all other Radicals and fill these offices with Democrats.
It is a disgrace to say you cannot get Democrat to fill these offices as well as Radicals. It is a disgrace to the name of Democrats, and all Democrats ought to concentrate in Wake to beat Upchurch as the Democrats of Forsyth will do to defeat their Radical clerk who has been in office sixteen years.

ture 77; minimum temperature 58; rainfall, 0.00 inches.

ity to-day: Slightly warmer; Monday

North Carolina: Slightly warmer; fair

Jefferson Davis' Last Surviving Class- mate Dying.

[By United Press.]

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 3.—Gen. Thos.
F. Dayton, aged 83 years, the last surviving class-mate of Jefferson Davis at West Point, was taken suddenly sick at 9 o'clock and at mid-night it is feared he is dying.

REVOLUTION!

THE LIBERTIES OF THE PEOP-LE ARE AGAIN THREATENED.

A Crisis for the People of the South-- Are the People of Anglo-Saxon Blood Ready to Give up Their Liberties and Live Under Republican Despotism?
--The Next Election the Most Important for the People of North Carolina Since The War.

(From Mecklenburg Times, organ of the Alliance in Mecklenburg county.)

When the liberties and free institutions of the Athenian republic were threatened by the advancing armies of Philip of Macedon, the voice of the great orator Demosthenes thundered forth a warning. But the people were in a state of apathy and indifference.
The eloquence of the greatest orator the world has produced could not arouse them, and the army of Philip came down upon them and turned freemen into slaves.

In like manner the liberties and free institutions of the United States ARE NOW IMPERILED BY A REPUBLICAN DES-POTISM MORE DANGEROUS THAN ANY HOSTILE
ARMY. The campaign has begun.
The alarm has been sounded and the drum beat is being heard summoning Democrats to awake and fall into line for the battle. But our people are in a state of apathy and indifference. THEY DO NOT REALIZE THAT THIS ELECTION IS IMPORTANT.

The burning question is, will the people of North Carolina arouse from their slumbers, or by apathy and indifference allow Republican despotism to wrest from them the right of self government? Shall the United States survive as a republic or perish in despotism?
ARE THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE READY TO GIVE UP THE LIBERTIES THAT WERE PURCHASED BY THE BLOOD OF THEIR FORE-FATHERS? These are questions to be answered at the ballot box in November.

WINSTON-SALEM.

Five Criminals Break From Forsyth Jail--Great Excitement in Consequence--A Child With Two Tongues.

[Special Cor. State Chronicle.]

WINSTON, N. C., Oct. 4.—Great excitement was caused here this morning by the discovery that five prisoners in the county jail had made their escape during the darkness of the night.

By some means they obtained a piece of a steel buggy spring that was sharp at one end. With this they cut one of the iron bars in two and drew the upper half from the hole above into which it was wedged. Through this narrow pass they forced their way, escaping through another place when they had prized up a plank. All of them are white men and were in there for penitentiary crimes.

Early this morning, when it was discovered, the jailor and policeman endeavored to track them but it was impossible. The other prisoners said that they escaped about two o'clock in the night and all ran in different directions.
Sheriff Boyer has telegraphed every town policeman for miles around and they will be searched for vigorously.

The Forsyth jail is said to be the best one in the State, it being new, and it is a cause of astonishment that a prisoner could have possibly escaped.

To-day Secretary Eugene C. Bedding-field will speak to the people of Forsyth on the issues of the day. There will be a tremendous crowd of Alliancemen and city people to hear him.

Monday Ex Governor Jarvis will also address the people, and I think that by the time they get through and Zebulon comes along to wind the campaign up, you can safely put down a Democratic majority for the Congressional, Senatorial and Legislative ticket whether the whole county ticket gets through or not.

The Daily of yesterday prints another tale that looks incredible, but which is vouched for by reliable parties. There is a child in the western edge of Rockingham county that has two well-formed tongues. Its father's name is Wm. Ore, and he has consulted physicians and tried to get them to operate upon one, but they declare it to be too dangerous an experiment.

The tide of Day School cadets that is flowing this way does not seem to have an end. So far 225 have arrived, and it is confidently expected that there will be 275 names on the next catalogue.
And all this the first year that it has ever opened its doors at Winston. Next?
There is nothing but success in Winston.

The protracted services going on at the Burkhead Methodist and First Baptist churches are being very largely attended and much good is being done.

Presiding Elder S. D. Adams arrived here yesterday and will hold the fourth quarterly conference at Burkhead church today and at Centenary Sunday and Monday.

ity. Good pay to the right man. Address

ARCHIBALD D. MURPHEY.

A Native of Orange County, North Carolina, Now in Arkansas, Pays a Tribute To The Great Murphey.

[Special Cor. of STATE CHRONICLE.]

VAN BUREN, ARKANSAS, Sept. 30.— Some unknown friend at Mebane lately sent me a package of North Carolina papers, and among them was the CHRONI-CLE of the 6th ult. On looking over this paper my attention was attracted by pencil marks to an admirable review of the life and public services of Archibald D. Murphey, written by Edgar A. Alderman. This writer's estimate of the public services of Judge Murphey is not overdrawn. Among North Carolina statesmen of his day he was in advance of all his cotemporaries. By this I mean to say his statesmanship was more comprehensive and far reaching than that of any of them. Indeed no person ever had clearer perceptions of what was necessary to build up and establish on firm foundations the prosperity of the State than this enlightened and progressive statesman. True, he was at least half a century in advance of his cotemporaries, and by some his patriotic labors were not appreciated. But as years roll on the impartial student of North Carolina history will be sure to do justice to the memory of Murphey.

He was a learned scholar, an accomplished jurist and enlightened legislator, and withal a refined and elegant gentleman. Although engaged the greater part of his life in the ordinary duties of a laborious profession, yet he found time to cultivate his literary talents and deservedly stood high in The Republic of Letters.

North Carolina has not done justice to the memory of her distinguished son.
The seat of justice of one of her western counties bears the name of "Murphy" and this is about all that has been done to perpetuate his memory. Many Carolinians of the present generation seem to have forgotten how to spell, his name and only a few years ago when I tried to procure a copy of his celebrated oration delivered before the Literary Society at Chapel Hill in 1827, I found it impossible to obtain a single copy, because it was out of print and only two copies were known to be in existence.
We are told that not a single stone marks his last resting place, and that the memory of this distinguished gentleman, once so highly honored is passing away. This ought not to be. Surely the Bar of Orange county, of which he was once a distinguished ornament, will erect a suitable monument to his memory. It should be simple, yet chaste and elegant, while the State, or people of the State, ought to rear to his memory a more imposing memorial at Raleigh or Chapel Hill.

I remember Judge Murphey well; was born and grew up to manhood in a few miles of his residence, and while yet a boy and in early manhood saw and heard much of him; and having been the recipient of many acts of kindness at his hands, I feel a profound reverence for his memory amounting almost to idolatry. Indeed no one who ever felt the cordial grasp of his hand, or looked into his face beaming with benignity and intelligence can ever forget Archibald D.
Murphey.

Very truly,

JESSIE TURNER.

NORTHAMPTON DEMOCRATS.

They Have Nominated a Strong Ticket In That Radical Stronghold.

Somehow the CHRONICLE has heretofore failed to receive or to print the proceedings of the Democratic Convention in the good county of Northampton. The following ticket was nominated:

For Register of Deeds--John W. Fleetwood;
For Superior Court Clerk--J. T.
Flythe;

For Treasurer--J. A. Burgwyn;
Sheriff--M. F. Stancil;
Coroner--T. W. Duke;
Surveyor--E. W. Cannon, For the House of Representatives-- Capt. R. B. Peebles and Dr. R. H.
Stancil.

The CHRONICLE believes this ticket will be elected. CAPT. PEEBLES is confessedly one of the best lawyers in the State and would take high rank in any body of men. DR. STANCIL was a member of the House in 1887 and Chairman of the Committee on appointment of Magistrates and rendered the State good service in a day of supreme crisis. He is a physician and farmer of large views.
Northampton ought to elect these gentlemen. They will be needed in the Legislature. It has been misrepresented long enough.

A Big Fire From Gasoline.

[By United Press.]

CHEVIOT, O. Oct. 4.—Gasoline, with which this town is lighted at night, was the cause of a terrible burning accident last night. Edward Conner, one of the lighters, had just started on his trip on a light cart, drawn by one horse. In the cart were 92 pint cans of gasoline.
At the first lamp one of the cans became lighted. The whole lot exploded. The horse and man were set on fire. The man, badly burned, was thrown from the wagon, while the horse ran through the streets screaming in agony until it dropped dead.

WAKE FOREST ENDOWMENT.

Fair Prospects of Making it Nearly a Quarter of a Million.

Wake Forest College, which stands as one of the foremost educational institutions of the country, now has an endowment of $155,000. Besides this it has the Bostwick fund of $10,000, making $165,000.

Recently, Mr. Bostwick, who has already done so much for the college, proposed to give one dollar to the college for every two dollars which other friends would give it between now and March 1st, 1891. This proposition has put the earnest and indefatigable President of the college, Dr. Chas. E. Taylor, to work. He has placed the amount which the friends of the institution ought to give between now and March 1st at $50,- 000 and hopes to raise it. If he succeeds in this—and he proposes to succeed—the college will get $25,000 from Mr.
Bostwick; and then the endowment of the institution will amount to $240,000.

Here is an opportunity which the Baptists of North Carolina surely cannot afford to let slip by, and they won't let it slip. They love and appreciate their college as do also many friends of other denominations. The CHRONICLE feels disposed to predict that Dr. Taylor will not only be successful in raising the $50,000 asked for, but even a larger amount. The people of Raleigh and Wake county ought to strain their nerves to make liberal responses now, for Wake Forest college is a Wake county institution and is practically a Raleigh institution.

PROGRESSIVE RALEIGHITES.

They Will Erect an Oyster Factory at
